College Theater Week Features Two Plays by Moliere and Wilde

November 10 and 11 Are Dates Comedies Will Be Staged.

Broadway Performers Back National Repertory Theater Presents Plays Starring William Browder.

This year College Theater Week, which will be held November 10-14, will feature two plays. These are the first major theatrical performances to be given at the College since 1939. The two productions to be given are "The Importance of Being Earnest," by Oscar Wilde, and "Tartuffe," by Moliere. They will be presented by the National Repertory Theater of New York.

Starring in both productions is William Browder, a veteran performer. His early training included appearances in New York and Minneapolis. Following his discharge from the Naval Reserve, he appeared in New York in "Janie" and "Outrageous Fortune" and took time off from his repertory plans to tour the country with the Theatre Guild-Margaret Webster production of "Othello."

Both plays are comedies. "The Importance of Being Earnest," scheduled for November 10, is a delightful comedy of the English nineties, which provides ample opportunity for the stylized mannerisms of this extremely mannered era and a satiric study of the Victorian social order. It is the story of young Mr. Worthing, who invents a worldly brother in order to leave his country home on frequent occasions to pay suit to a sophisticated London debutante of the period. His plans, however, are upset when a friend of his from London presents himself as this imaginary brother.

The grandeur and elegance of the 17th Century France is the setting for the amusing Moliere masterpiece, "Tartuffe," to be given November 11. "Tartuffe," sometimes called "The Impostor" or "The Hypocrite," is a sophisticated comedy of manners. The story deals with the hypocritical Tartuffe, who by his pretended devotion to Heaven, completely captivates the heart, as well as the fortune, of a glib gentleman, Orgon.

The difficult task of Orgon's wife in trying to convince Orgon of the true character of his idol is filled with hilarity and fun.

Both plays are brilliantly staged and have elaborate costuming.

All seats are reserved for both performances. No activity tickets will be accepted at the door but holders of activity tickets may obtain, without cost, reserved seats exclusive of those in the regular reserved section, which carry a twenty-five cent reservation fee.

Individual tickets may be had for one dollar under the same reservation plan. There will be a table in the second floor hall for the reservation of seats every day from 9:00 to 11:00 and from 2:00 to 4:00, from October 29 to November 5. After that time the seats which have not been reserved by holders of activity tickets will be made available to the public.

Raya Garbousova, cellist, and Leonard Pennario, pianist of the Ruth Seufert Concert Series, presented the opening concert of the season.

Members of the group are Bradley Moore, Lydia Slickerod, Betty Collins, Ross Johnson, Lina Foster, Herman Hauscher, Peggy Ford, Irene Toland, Arthur Whitworth, Jeanne Taylor.

Charlene Welsh, Margaret Wade, Kathleen Jennings, Veronica Stephenson, Virginia Scott, Janice Rhodes, Paul Gates, Dr. Blanche Dow, Miss Olive DeLuca, J. M. Porterfield.

Miss Janet Dickey, Miss Franken, Miss Mattie Dykes, Dr. Irene Mueller, Miss Catherine Phelps, Nancy Dean, Loretta Farmer, and Miss Rachel Taul.

Graduate Visits College

Miss Clara Judson, who graduated from the College in 1947, was visiting on the campus while attending the teachers meeting October 9 through October 12. She is now teaching second grade in North Kansas City.

Mr. Dwight Brantley Gives Lecture at Teachers Meet

Mr. Dwight Brantley, Special Agent in Charge, Federal Bureau of Investigation, United States Department of Justice, gave an address Friday afternoon at teachers' meeting on "How the Citizen May Aid in Law Enforcement." He emphasized the fact that all criminals and delinquents start on their road to crime in childhood. Broken homes caused by divorce, death, or unemployment, the liquor, and the feeling of being down-trodden cause future criminals.

Mr. Brantley said that in building good citizens the school is the most important of the three principles of home, church, and school.

The home is often the cause of distress, the child is in church only a few hours a week, therefore it is the schools', thus the teachers', responsibility to make the child desire a great living.

Teachers can best do this work by being kind, interested, and understanding. If they act as if they deplore their position and "take it out" on the child, he will be inclined to go "bad."

Instructors should explain to the children about the cheap amusements that lead to crime, and should cause the children to have respect and trust for the law enforcement officers. By stressing the correct pattern of life to follow, the teachers mold the child and promote a higher standard in education and in social living.

Dr. C. A. Phillips Speaks at Meeting

Mr. Giles Thielman Is
Speaker Also During Second Session.

"There are no such things as security and stability for teachers. If we are to make teaching a profession in Missouri, we must demand modern teaching situations to do our work," Dr. C. A. Phillips declared in the second session of the teachers' meeting October 10.

This professor, associated with the University of Missouri, discussed many difficulties which confront those who are interested in the education of youngsters. He opposed nine months' education not only because the educators are employed for only this amount of time, but also because he believes students should take twelve months' courses and be able to graduate from universities at the age of twenty.

Need Ethical Code
Dr. Phillips insisted, "We need a profession with a code of ethics and a kick in the code." He explained that democracy has failed to see teachers as human beings with all their needs, urges, and desires. "If democracy continues to neglect seeing these qualities, the personality of the profession will be warped."

Whether or not teaching can be made professional will depend entirely upon the people's attitude toward higher wages, according to the speaker. "Even with the oppositional factors of teaching stability, we have come a long way and any school is as good, if not better, than it was in 1940," Dr. Phillips praised.

Thielman Outlines Needs

The latter part of the assembly was in charge of Mr. Giles Thielman, director of the Topeka Kansas High School. Mr. Thielman outlined the practical methods of meeting the imperative needs of youth in secondary schools.

"The most important point is winning the confidence of your pupils," Mr. Thielman pointed out. "Give your pupils a chance to know when you are pleased with their actions as well as when you are displeased." He declared that if they are given a chance to express themselves and explain their feelings, they will learn much more rapidly.

Check Individual Needs

That every student should be checked on a school objective awareness sheet was another factor the Kansas teacher emphasized. In this sheet the needs of each individual could be enumerated, thus offering a proof as to whether or not adjusted classes and differentiated assignments should be required.

"Work experience education such as laboratory work is an asset to any secondary school," the speaker added.

Must Understand Pupils

That youth needs health and physical education, needs to understand family and home life, should

Bronze Plaque Is Given to College

Navy Awards for Training
V-12 Units During War
Are Received.

Captain John W. Peterson, USN, Professor of Naval Science, NROTC, University of Kansas, presented to the College in the assembly of September 19 a Bronze Plaque which now appears in the north end of the second floor hall, on the wall across from the Registrar's office.

This Plaque, signed by Secretary of Navy James Forrestal, was given to the College for services rendered during the Navy V-12 program.

At the time of the presentation, besides the Plaque, a Navy E banner was also presented as a token of appreciation. As Captain Peterson, the alternate for Rear Admiral J. Cary Jones, USN Commandant, Ninth Naval District, presented these tokens to Col W. Lamkin, President Emeritus, he commended, "Your job was well done during those war times. Now, please devote your classes to the keeping of the peace—not defending it."

A personal letter, dated September 17, 1947, was sent President J. W. Jones by Rear Admiral J. Cary Jones. In the letter Rear Admiral Jones explained that Japan's surprise attack on Pearl Harbor, December 7, 1941, brought with it urgent need for an immediate and tremendous expansion of our naval forces, and that all phases of this country's education as well as industrial and agricultural resources were called upon to produce the required manpower, arms, and material.

He reviewed how institutions of learning throughout the midwest responded, promptly and wholeheartedly and peace time academic routine was suspended to make way for V-12, V-5, and other units.

Said Rear Admiral Jones: "The efficiency, patriotism and cooperative spirit demonstrated by Northwest Missouri State Teacher's College in training Navy V-12 units has been recognized by the entire nation. The men you provided have served their country in keeping with the best traditions of the naval service. In behalf of the Secretary of the Navy, this plaque is presented to you in grateful

Welcome to the 1947 Homecoming

For weeks we here on the Campus have been looking forward to the day when graduates and former students will return to join with us in backing our team in the game with the Southeast Missouri State College, and to renew old acquaintances and make new ones as we enjoy the many activities that have been prepared for the celebration. Many students, faculty, and citizens of Maryville have cooperated to make this Homecoming a success. Such cooperative effort guarantees that YOUR college will have a fine celebration. All students and faculty members will be hosts to our returning friends and we shall all do our best to make this Homecoming Day a happy one for all who return to our campus.

J. W. JONES, President

New Student from Lyon, France, Arrives on Campus

Newest arrival on the campus of the College is Pierre Sotteau, from Lyon, France. Mr. Sotteau attended the Normal School for Teachers in Lyon, and will be here for one year before returning to his native land to continue his education. He will teach while finishing work toward his degree at the University of Lyon.

First impressions of New York received by Mr. Sotteau were based on comparisons with Paris. Paris is older, of course, and therefore much different. The cosmopolitan atmosphere, architecture, and general appearance of New York City stamp it as the future city of the world in the opinion of the Frenchman.

Maryville, the first small American city or town visited for any length of time by Mr. Sotteau, has been very pleasant to him. He likes the people, and believes that his stay in the city will be thoroughly enjoyed.

Former Basketball Star Will Come

Harold Hutcheson, who led his teammates to glory in the controversial basketball championship in the 1946 season will be here for Homecoming, November 1. Accompanying him will be his wife and daughter. The Hutchesons are making their home in Denver, Colorado.

Harrison County Students Have a Theater Party

The Harrison County students of the Northwest Missouri State Teachers College had a theater party Monday night, October 13. After the movie, refreshments were served at Miss Carruth's apartment. The students who attended the party were Everett Arnold, Bethany; Orville Bears, Mt. Moriah; Marjorie Burton, Bethany; Lois Easton, Bethany; Harry Elder, Gilman City; Justin Graham, Ridgeway; Hurst Hogan, Bethany; Jim McLane, Bethany; Earl Nichols, Bethany; Kenneth Parsons, Halfield; Carmen Phillips, Blytheedale; Helen Richardson, Halfield; Paul Stewart, Ridgeway; Harold Walters, Marlinsville; and Mary Lee White, Bethany.

Mrs. Romona Canton, Mr. Sterling Surrey, and Miss Winnie Ann Carruth are the faculty sponsors of the Harrison County students.

Miss Dickey's Sister Is Star

Annemary Dickey, the star of Rodgers and Hammerstein's new musical play, "Allegro," was given a complimentary review by Brooks Atkinson, a noted critic, in the New York Times, October 12. The play is produced by the Theatre Guild and is now appearing at the Majestic Theatre in New York. Miss Dickey is the sister of Miss Janet Dickey of the College faculty.

Homecoming Plans Require the Best

Leading Students Have Been Chosen to Plan
Big Campus Event.

Everyone is working. Committee meetings, letters to alumni, everything one can imagine—all point to Homecoming! Homecoming holds a dominant position in everything—Tower, fall quarter, and the students' minds.

Plans were started last spring and since then things are shaping up until it looks as though the College will be overrun with alumni and former students on November 1.

Usually it is taken for granted that big plans must have big hard-working committee members who take much of their valuable time to plan things to make us proud to be Maryville students. But you should know who are on these "unhallowed" committees.

Take, for instance, the general liaison and planning committee of which Jean Bush is the only student member—for that matter she is the student chairman of the Homecoming committee. A job like that takes much work. Jean is also vice president of the Tri Sigs and a member of Alpha Psi Omega.

Publicity Committee

On the publicity committee one again finds Jean Bush. Another member is Paul Gates, a senior, from River Grove, Illinois, a physical education major, editor of the Northwest Missourian, football quarterback, co-captain of the football team, corresponding secretary of "M" Club, publicity chairman of Religious Emphasis Week, and a member of the Tower Staff. He spent three years in the Finance Corps of the Army. Bruce Carmichael, from Kellerton, Iowa, is a junior, an industrial arts major, and a mathematics minor. He served three years in the Navy Air Corps. Hurst Hogan, from Bethany, is a physics major, a mathematics minor, a member of SCA and the Independents Club. He served in the Marines in the Pacific area.

Contacting Alumni

Alice White, a sophomore from Cameron, is a Tri Sig and a member of WAA. Her job in writing to alumni is important.

Decorations

Jane Bovard, a sophomore from Maryville, is a commerce major and a social science minor. Betty Johnson, a sophomore from Maryville, is a Spanish-English major, an Alpha Sig, and a Green and White Pepper. Lee Dreps, a Spanish major from Barnard, South Dakota, is a sophomore. He is active in Barkatze and the International Relations Club. He spent two years in the Navy. Eddie Reece, a sophomore from Brownington, is a pre-law major, a member of the Inter-frat Council, Barkatze, and Phi Sigs. Vee Overly, a junior physical education major from Mound City, is a Tri Sig, member of WAA, Barkatze, president of Residence Hall Council, and secretary of the Junior class. Dorothy Howell, a sophomore from Burlington Junction, is a commerce major, a Delta Sig, a member of CBA and SCA clubs.

Refreshments

Mary Loyce Rockwell, a junior, is from Skidmore. She is a vocational home economics major, a Tri Sig, a Kappa Phi, and a member of the Home Economics Club.

Variety Show

Dick Thomas, a senior from Starfield, is a social science major, and a speech minor, a member of Barkatze, Dramatics Club, and is president of the Student Senate. Sam Carpenter, a sophomore from Bolckow, is an agriculture major, a chemistry minor, and is active in

Committees Are Planning So That No Details Will Be Overlooked

Dr. Frank Grube Leads Panel Discussion on Books

Dr. Frank Grube, chairman of the English Department of the College, presided at the panel discussion held Friday morning, October 10, on the subject "Supplements to the Text-book." The panel was held in conjunction with the annual teachers' meeting of northwest Missouri teachers.

After Dr. Grube had opened the discussion with the remark that "the inability to read is the greatest failing of incoming freshmen" the members of the panel considered ideas suggested by the audience concerning the various phases of supplements to literature textbooks, namely, books, magazines, radio, and motion pictures.

Among the ideas advanced on the problem of obtaining books were those of donations from publishers, travelling libraries, appeal to townsmen, use of local libraries, and use of private libraries. After the books have been obtained the problem of arousing interest among students is to be faced. Knowing the tastes, cultivating those tastes, and following up the reading by the students would insure the best results according to the opinion of most of the English teachers and other interested persons present at the panel.

Teaching the proper reading of magazines and newspapers, the greatest sources of adult reading, will help pupils in their reading skill. Also important is a variety of reading.

Religious Emphasis Is Theme for Week

Week Features Classroom
Meetings, Assemblies,
Seminars.

Religious Emphasis Week is well on its way to success with the University Christian Missions leading in its direction. Mr. W. Clark Ellzey, of Stephens College, Columbia, is leader of the team from the University of Christian Missions. Mr. Ellzey came to the Campus, September 28, and met with representatives of the twelve committees in charge of the preparations for the Week of Religious Emphasis.

Announcement came early last week of the coming of Dr. L. L. Leftwich to serve with the Missions group. Dr. Leftwich is professor of Sociology and Religious Education, Director of Student Personnel, and Dean of Men, at Culver-Stockton College, Canton. Dr. Leftwich received his M. A., B. A., and Ph. D. degrees in religion and higher education from the University of Chicago. Before coming to Culver-Stockton, he was Dean of Men at Texas Christian University, Dean of Oak Park Junior College, and Dean of Drury College.

Mr. Ellzey, as leader of the team, states that the team is here to serve the students in every way possible. Every effort is being made to present the cause of Christianity through class room meetings, seminars, and organizational meetings. In addition to this, any member of the team will welcome personal conference with any individual.

An addition to the program this year is that of the book exhibit. With Miss Janet Bentall in charge, an array of religious books will be displayed for sale. The library will also display all the religious books belonging to the College library.

Student officers and committee chairmen for the over all planning are as follows: Dorothea Adams, vice chairman; Richard Leet, vice chairman; Gordon Bixler, program; Paul Gates, publicity; Norma Snyder, worship and spiritual resources; Charles Hinchey, seminars; Richard Appleman, organized houses and organizations; Mary Garrett, personal conferences; Beverly Johnson, arrangements; Alice White, hospitality; Janice Bentall, book exhibit.

The faculty committee with Dr. J. Gordon Strong as chairman includes Mrs. Harry Sheetz, Miss Katherine Franken, Miss Janet Dickey, Dr. Irene Mueller, and Mr. William Tragow Garrett.

Don Johnson Is On Campus

Among the many former Bearcats seen on the campus again during the recent teachers meeting was Don Johnson, former basketball star. Johnson is superintendent of schools at Englewood. He turned down an offer to coach a professional basketball team in favor of his superintendency.

Variety Show Will Be Held Friday Night; Informal Dance Will Follow.

Everyone Has Festive Spirit

President and Mrs. Jones Will Hold
Open House After Game
With Cape.

"We will be there!" That is the response on the cards that are pouring into the College mailbox from alumni. Yes, they are coming to Homecoming.

People in Northwest Missouri and points north, south, east, and west are certainly hearing about Homecoming. It is being publicized over the radio, in the theater, in store windows; even the suitcase students cannot escape because their local papers are also carrying articles about the big Homecoming at Maryville, October 31 and November 1.

The College Dons Her Finery

The College is ready for the big week end. The halls are being decked out in their Homecoming best. Bits of Homecoming finery are appearing all over the campus.

Busy committees are planning furiously so that no details will be overlooked. The bands are practicing overtime; Dance Club is preparing; the Variety Show is organizing; wherever one looks he finds evidence that the College has the Homecoming spirit.

Talent Has Been Added

The latest addition to the Homecoming star performers is Rex Moyer, who is going to act as master of ceremonies for the Variety Show. His versatility (which ranges from a sharp wit to the ability to play the trombone with his toes) marks him as quite capable of fulfilling this position.

Another addition is Brad Moore's band which will play for dancing in Room 114 after the Variety Show on Friday night. The band has been a great success on the campus this year and will be a great aid in making the Homecoming enjoyable to all.

Schedule Is In This Issue

A complete schedule of events as they now stand is given in another part of this issue of the Northwest Missourian. It would be wise to note that the dance Saturday night, instead of being formal as previously announced is scheduled as informal. This means that those attending may use their own discretion as to dress. Evening clothes are optional.

Note also that if you plan to attend any of the functions of your particular organizations it would aid them greatly in planning if you would notify them ahead of time.

Tickets will go on sale next week for the Saturday night dance. The price will be $1.50 for couples and $1.00 single admission.

Our slogan is: Come one, come all. Come to Homecoming this fall.

Seniors Present Annual Assembly in Auditorium

Hilarity prevailed at the annual Senior Assembly held last Wednesday in the auditorium. The seriousness with which the program opened was quickly overcome by the gaiety of a series of acts that brought gales of laughter from the audience.

For the opening number, Manley Thompson, president of the Senior Class gave an address of welcome to the freshmen and new faculty members. Dick Leet made the announcements, including an important one concerning Religious Emphasis Week now in progress on the campus. Art Walsh then assumed his role as Master of Ceremonies by introducing a registration day scene featuring Bob Weston as the bewildered freshman. Rush Week and its activities directed toward pledges and prospective ones were exemplified by Pat Straight, Meredee Myers, Joyce Heck, and Dick Leet.

Newest concerns of football coaches saw the father-son combination, smoking. Homecoming fans of 1915 and 1937, with Rex Moyer and Bob Weston in the leading parts, was the next feature. The fan of 1937 was very successful, as his eighteen children and charming wife proved.

George Andrews, fortified with coke, cigarettes, back files of every examination given by the school, and an easy chair, was an example of the studious side of college life. Dick Appleman being pursued by Helen Sutton, with the auditorium as a proving ground, illustrated Sade Hawkins' day. Christmas activity was shown by Jenny Wren.

Trees Add to Campus Beauty

"Don't you just love a campus with your college?" was a question asked by a new student this fall, who had gone to a city college the previous year. This newcomer to the College was seconded in his appreciation of the beauty of the campus by returning teachers attending the meetings last week. Many of them said that the grounds are more beautiful this fall than they have ever seen them before. What, then, are some of the features that make our campus such a beautiful setting for the College, that both old and new students comment on it?

To the new friend from the city college, the multitude of trees scattered over the campus is one of the most attractive features of its new surroundings. Although he might view a patch of scraggly weeds or grass on his way to school in the city, a tree was a rare thing to behold. And the chances are, that, unless he gets hold of one of Dr. Mueller's diagrams of the plantings on the campus, he will never realize that there are sixty some varieties of trees planted here. They range from the familiar American elms spaced along the long walk and the drives, to a pair of Russian olive trees on the south side of Residence Hall. The white birch trees in front of Residence Hall and the Administration building seem to be the favorites of many students. However, the many kinds of pine and fir trees run a close second, especially when there is a soft breeze whispering through their branches.

Almost every student has claimed some spot on the campus as his own, either a place where he likes to be, or one upon which he likes to gaze. The "long walk" from the Administration building to the President's home, is again claiming admirers as it has for many years past. With its long rows of trees and pleasant atmosphere, it is an ideal strolling path and has been enjoyed by thousands of students. Others would not limit themselves to the long walk but would include the entire broad expanse of lawn and trees in front of the Administration building. The view out across this part of the campus from the third floor of the building is particularly attractive in the winter when a falling snow makes the trees and ground white.

Another traditional spot on the campus is the quaint wooden bridge on the cinder path from Residence Hall to the Gym. It is a relic of the days when there was water in the creek cutting through the campus. The cinder paths themselves are long remembered by students. And no discussion of the campus would be complete without mentioning College Park with its groves of trees and picnic tables and ovens.

The sloping banks of the campus lake with their background of shrubs and flowers leading up to the President's home, are perhaps most beautiful on a clear starlit night when the lights are reflected in the water. Indeed, the whole campus is beautiful, and all students, whether the campus is something new to be explored and treasured, or whether it is a familiar place, join in appreciation of its beauty.

THE COLLEGE OATH
"We will never bring disgrace to this, our College, by any act of cowardice or dishonesty. We will fight for the ideals and sacred things of the College. We will revere and obey the College laws and do our best to incite a like respect and reverence in others. We will transmit this College to those who come after us, greater, better, and more beautiful than it was transmitted to us."

TELL YOUR FRIENDS!
November 1, our Bearcats tangle with the Cape Girardeau Indians in the Annual Homecoming game. In previous years interest has been of a normal nature toward Homecoming affairs, but this year plans are being made that far surpass any of times past. Alumni, faculty, and students are being aroused by an energetic committee that under the guidance of an executive body has formulated a week end activities designed for all to enjoy. A variety show, float parade, breakfasts, luncheons, dance, pep rally, and of course the game, are the highlights of the events planned. Since this is an inaugural approach to planning of Homecoming, mistakes may be made. Alumni will not all be contacted; some will have difficulty finding housing accommodations; others will not meet all the old friends they expected to meet; but when all the gaiety is over and once again normalcy returns to this campus we shall look with pride toward those who had the most to do in returning a spirit of friendliness, comradeship, and Homecoming happiness to the College.

The central planning committee has called upon many to aid them in their work. The various campus organizations, individuals, and local civic groups have pitched in wholeheartedly. What the committee wants now is to have each and every one of you tell your friends about Homecoming November 1. Tell them again and again. Ask them to pass the word along. Bring one other person with you to the College for the forty-eight hours of concentrated fun beginning with a Variety Show, Friday evening, October 31, at which the Homecoming Queen will be selected, and highlighted by Saturday afternoon's gridiron engagement and evening dance.

If you want to meet your friends, come to Homecoming!
If you want to enjoy a week end, come to Homecoming!
Remember—NOVEMBER 1.

1947 FASHION COMMENT
Subjects for editorial comment change from day to day and year to year; climatic conditions bring us a great variation in weather throughout the seasons of the year; teachers make different assignments day by day; but the "changingest" things in all the wide world are the styles and "fads" of the women.

A few years ago, the big fad that swept the country left the males of the nation in utter dejection and confusion. One day a man would see his lady friend and her hair would be natural and recognizable, and the next day he'd have to look twice to recognize the same woman. Hues ranging from deep red to all shades of the blond sprang up on the hair of the ordinary woman. The men howled and the rage went on until the men lost their voices and then the fad tapered off gradually until it is now merely a forgotten headache.

The male has always scoffed at his mate's choice of clothing and at her show of care concerning it. He has laughed at the short skirts; he has laughed at medium length skirts; he has laughed at the long skirts; but he roared his indignation when the nation's teen age girls took his clothes for their own.

Now again, the women have decided to make their male companions sit up and take notice. They are endeavoring to do this by lowering their dresses six to eight inches below the knees.

Not every woman is doing this—yet. Not any man has viewed the change with any satisfaction or pleasure.

We men will stand aside and criticize if you ladies insist on this pursuit of "style craze," but, if you want our opinion, you look much better without the change.

The Stroller

Gad, what a cad, is this a fad, or is he mad?
Joe Bleep, the procrastinating smoo, waited until the night before his mid-term paper was due before he hauled over to the library to get his reference notes. He arrived at 9:15 and obtained some excellent sources from the card catalog. Then, he referred to the Reader's Guide, and Ahhhhh! here was just what he wanted, some fine articles. So he romped down to the stacks to pick out the desired magazines. But, what had happened! It was too late to take the magazines up to the reading room to take notes, so the culprit started padding his jacket and surreptitiously made off with five fine publications.

He finished his paper all right, but his conscience began to bother him. Afraid to smuggle the magazines back into the stacks he discarded them. After all, he had finished his theme—why should he care? Here's why—the big skilthead is cheating himself and his buddies now and the next time he wants to write a paper, I would like to emphasize this, I will!

The skilthead is cheating himself and his buddies.

The skilthead is cheating himself and his buddies.

He doesn't realize every magazine he carts off has to be replaced before the volume which includes it can be bound. The cost of replacements is much more than the original issues. Some can never be replaced. In the new system, the library administration wants to bind as many magazines as the budget will allow, in order to provide excellent references and a warehouse of knowledge for all. But scores of Joe Bleeps are causing the binding cost to be doubled, thereby eliminating completely the projects of popular interest—libraries in each Quad building and Residence Hall which were planned for the near future. Out of only 46 titles which were sent to the bindery last month alone, 256 issues of the best references were missing. Figure it out, Joe. Why don't you give everyone a break?

Eighteen Lettermen Are on Bearcat Grid Squad

Rolla Miners Again Defeat Bearcats

Driving Play of Marvin Weed Is Only Bright Spot for Cats.

An underrated team of Rolla Miners once again turned the trick Friday night, October 10, and dropped the Bearcats into the defeated class after they had won their first three games. The Miners in 1940 snapped a Bearcat winning streak at twenty-one games with a 25-0 victory.

Maryville jumped ahead with one touchdown only to see this lead fade as a rejuvenated Miner aggregation pushed across two touchdowns to take a 12 to 6 victory.

The Bearcats' aerial attack, which worked so well against the Ottawa Braves, was not impressive. A blow fell to the Bearcat squad as it dressed for the game. Ralph Kurtright, ace place-kicker, was notified that he was ineligible on the basis of four years' previous competition.

The Miners struck quickly after receiving the kickoff, Kemper passing to Earl Hoehn, Fullback Jim McGrath making a big gain, and Kemper passing to make way for first down on the Maryville 30. The drive was halted by Paul Butherus as he recovered a Miner fumble. Pat Zuchowski then kicked to the Rolla 8 yard line on a beautiful play that caught Rolla flatfooted. Rolla took the ball and promptly drove for two first downs. Then Bill Gamble, Maryville center, recovered a fumble on the Rolla 33 yard line. The Bearcats started their drive for a touchdown. Paul Gates and Marvin Weed, quarter and fullback, gained 13 yards. Weed broke through center dragging two Rolla tacklers behind before they stopped him for a 15 yard gain that set up the next play and the Bearcat touchdown. Zuchowski swept around his right end on a lateral play to hit pay dirt. The place kick by Marion Freeman was wide.

After an exchange of punts the Miners started on a touchdown drive in the latter part of the first quarter that continued into the second period. After a series of plays Whitney took a double reverse to scamper unhindered for a Rolla touchdown and to cross the Bearcat goal line for the first time this season.

Totoraitis, Bearcat end, was all over Dowling as he attempted to place kick the extra point. The score stood 6-6.

Maryville was in a bad spot when a Zuchowski punt gained only 8 yards and Rolla started an aerial attack with Kemper passing to Whitney for consistent gains. Bearcat Captain Swede Johnson recovered a Miner fumble as the half ended.

The third quarter went scoreless. Rolla was penalized 15 for holding as the fourth quarter opened. Starting on their own 7 yard line they passed and ran down the center of the Bearcats' line to Maryville's 12 from where Reichelt passed over the goal line to Teas.

In the waning minutes Maryville started a drive from its own 45 yard line that almost ended by crossing the Miner goal line. In this march Gates and Al Wormsley passed twice to Howard Glavin. Weed tore off 8 yards, and Klange gathered in a pass for a first down on the Rolla 31. Weed picked up 11 yards on another of his driving gains, but was hurt in the process. With time for only one play remaining the Bearcats attempted another pass, but Gates was caught back of the line as the game ended.

Random Shots . . .

Ralph Kurtright, the old reliable, kicked a wet, soggy ball squarely between the uprights in the William-Jewell game for that all important extra point. Rex Adams had to hold the ball in two inches of water, but that fact didn't bother the veteran kicker.

Marvin Weed, the Bearcats' big, rugged fullback, is rapidly becoming a reliable also. When the team needs just a yard or two for a first down, big Marvin usually gets the call, and so far he has done the job every time.

The Bearcats got their first test in the mud at William-Jewell where the game was played throughout in a downpour of rain. Although the score was a mere 7 to 0 victory, the Bearcats rolled up 241 yards from scrimmage to a negative one yard for Jewell.

The Rolla Miners seem to be a jinx to Bearcat football teams. Back in 1940, when the Miners were sporting a 21 game winning streak, the engineers came up and knocked us off 25 to 0. That was the worst beating that a Bearcat team has taken in the eleven years Coach Milner has been at the helm of football teams here. Last year, with a mediocre team, they again clipped the 'Cats by that same 25 to 0 score and this year, 12 to 6. The freshmen and sophomore men should remember this when they go to Rolla next fall. It's about time for that jinx to be broken!

Pat Zuchowski kicked the Bearcats out of the hole several times in the William-Jewell game. With the William-Jewell kicker hitting the coffin corner with surprising accuracy in the mud and rain, the 'Cats were back behind their own 10 yard line four times in the first half, but each time Pat got them back out safely.

Center Bill Gamble deserves much credit for his fine handling of the wet ball at Jewell also. Not once in the game did he make a bad pass of the slippery pigskin. Maury Giest did an equal job when Bill was out of the game.

Married men, who were almost unheard of on a football team before the war, dot the squad this year. Well, yes, there was Stalcup. Almost every afternoon, Bearcat children can be noted off to one side cheering for their daddy to hit that line.

Although the spectators were disappointed by the Bearcat loss, one of the largest crowds ever to see a football game here attended the Rolla game.

Paul Butherus and Marvin Weed received the brunt of the ball carrying load in the mud and rain at William-Jewell. The faster Bearcat backs could not cut and run as usual in the slippery field and it was the straight, hard line plunging of these two men that kept the Bearcats going a good share of the time.

Ralph Kurtright and the squad got a jolt when Coach Ryland Milner announced that the old "Bearcub" was ineligible for any further conference play. Kurtright, nicknamed "Bearcub" by his teammates here in 1937, is one of the best place kickers in the country today. His loss will be felt by the squad.

The men who played in the game against Rolla will probably be dubious of southpaws the rest of their lives. Bob Kemper, the Miners' left-handed quarterback, was a thorn in the 'Cats side as he completed pass after pass. Back on his own seven yard line, Kemper faked a punt and passed to the 30, catching the Bearcat defense flatfooted. Kemper, by the way, is a good basketball player and the fans will get another look at him this winter on the hardwoods.

Ivan Schottel, former all-round Bearcat star, has returned to finish a few credits required for his degree and is assisting Coach Milner and Coach Peterson with the squad. Schottel, who has about eight years of experience with the T formation, both in college and pro ball, is helping the backs learn the finer points of the T. A few of this year's Bearcats played with "Honk" here in 1941. Everyone wishes Ivan Schottel were eligible to play just one more year here.

"Swede" Johnson wants it known to all hands that his home is Red Oak, Iowa. Several times, the big guard's home town has been listed as Atlantic, Iowa. Yours truly knows that Atlantic and Red Oak have been arch rivals for a long time and it irks him no end to see his name linked with the rival town. All joking aside, both of these towns have sent many outstanding athletes and students to this college.

Paul Gates, known to be a hearty eater, was outsmarted by a can opener and a can of peaches after the Omaha game, and Paul cut his thumb so badly that it took four stitches to close the wound. Gates, who is a game competitor, stayed right on though, and played some of the Jewell game and all of the Rolla game, even though hampered by the wounded thumb.

The Bearcats will get in on a variety of Homecomings the next few games. Springfield and Rockwood both have homecoming receptions planned for the 'Cats. Then comes our own big day with Cape here on the first of November. The following Friday, when the 'Cats go to Kirksville, they will play to a Bulldog homecoming crowd.

Miss Casanovas Leaves for Home Miss Alice Casanovas, who has attended the College the past two years, left St. Louis, Friday, October 3, by plane for her home in La Paz, Bolivia. This year, after attending the summer session of college, she with the other foreign girls made a tour through the principal cities of the United States. During her stay at the College, she was asked many times to speak before different clubs and organizations.

College Girls Attend Game Miss Beverly Johnson and Miss Kathryn Krause attended a house party at the home of Miss Barbara Hansen at Minneapolis. The party was attended by girls who worked last summer in Yellowstone Park. They attended the Minnesota and Northwestern football game there Saturday afternoon, October 11.

Cape Girardeau Is Foe for Homecoming

Gridiron Battle Looms Against Improving Indians.

Coach Ryland Milner will send his Bearcat charges against Cape Girardeau's Indians on the Homecoming bill, November 1. The football game will be the Saturday afternoon feature of the homecoming weekend.

Cape, which has not scored a touchdown in three defeats, will be trying to upset the Bearcats and spoil a jubilant weekend for the people of Northwest Missouri. Cape has been weakened by the loss of Coach Abe Stuber, who has moved to Iowa State College at Ames.

Coach Wayne Goddard, new Cape coach, played football under Coach Stuber and was Little All-American in 1937. He has turned in outstanding coaching records at Dexter and Hannibal high schools before moving to Cape. Coach Goddard also served in the United States Navy.

Center, Don "Diz" Anderson, All-MTAA center and Little All-American, second team, has returned to Cape and is playing his usual great game for the Indians. Anderson is six feet tall and weighs 185 pounds. Left Tackle Bill Lee and End Jack Klosterman, players who made the All-MTAA second team, have returned and will see plenty of action in the tussle with the Bearcats.

The Cape starting lineup will average 189 pounds: the Bearcats will average 195 pounds. The backfield average for the team of the Southeast Missouri State Teachers College is 190 pounds.

Maryville Bearcats, who lost to the Rolla Miners, are out to avenge last year's loss to the Cape team. The Bearcats dropped a 7-0 count to the Indians at Cape Girardeau. The game was a near upset as Cape was a 20 point favorite.

Coach Milner has been working his boys hard and will have them at top strength for the Cape encounter. Stanley Totoraitis, all conference end last year, will be playing his last Homecoming game for the Bearcats as will Paul Gates, Harold (Swede) Johnson, Bruce Peters, Jenny Wren, Vernon Weidmaier, Howard Glavin, and Rex Adams. Bobby Boeh, Ken Jones, Frank Cruz, Art Felt, Max Hochenaier, Eddie Morel, Clyde Sweet, Charles Goodwin, Don Hoffman, and other freshmen will be playing their first Homecoming game for Coach Ryland Milner.

The Bearcats have been lucky thus far, getting by their tough scrimmages, as well as football games, without an injury. Fullback Marvin Weed injured his leg in the game with Rolla, but was there charging against Springfield. Maryville's Homecoming football game will be just like the Army-

"M" Club Will Have Homecoming Breakfast

Work has been progressing steadily on the football programs for Homecoming against Cape Girardeau. With a view to more pictures several shots have been taken to insure an ample number of them in the program. Stars of the past and present will have their pictures on the walls of the "M" Club room at the gymnasium if suggested plans are carried through. The plans call for additional publicity of former and present members, and pictures are the chief source of that publicity. Breakfast plans have been completed, with the Quad Dining Hall as the setting for the gathering of old and new Bearcats. Since homecomers are expected in large numbers, correspondence has been maintained with former members to ascertain the number expected for the breakfast.

Although basketball is not yet appearing on the sports pages, the club has decided to continue their programs through the basketball season. Experience garnered through production of football sheets will help greatly.

Rebounding from the upset defeat at the hands of the Rolla Miners last week, the Maryville Bearcats fought the Springfield Bears to a 7-7 standstill at Springfield last Saturday afternoon. The tie was a blow to the 'Cats conference aspirations, since they now must hope for a combination of defeats to the Bears and Miners that will enable them to grasp a share of the laurels.

Even in the tie the Bearcats gained distinction, since Springfield had been undefeated in four previous games and was a one touchdown favorite in the contest. Inspired line play stopped the Bears' ground game cold, and only a desperate pass in the closing seconds of the first half that was complete for a touchdown saved Southwest State from defeat.

Three Passes Completed

Starting from their own 37 yard line the Bearcats scored without losing possession of the ball the first time they ran from scrimmage. Springfield received the kickoff, was held for downs and kicked out to Jack Slack of the Bearcats who returned to the 37. With a man in motion off the T formation on nearly every play Maryville moved down to score.

Highlights of the march were three completed passes from Paul Gates to Alvin Wormsley and Stanley Totoraitis, runs of 8 and 9 yards on T laterals off a spread formation by Norman James and Marvin Weed and a 25 yard pass to the three yard line from Wormsley to Gates. Weed then cracked over in two tries despite a torn cartilage in his knee which hindered his plunging throughout the game. Marion Freeman split the uprights with a placement to give the 'Cats a 7-0 lead.

But the long Springfield pass from Captain Chaffin to End Parvance, followed by the conversion by their ace place kicker Eddy Lore, tied the game at 7-7.

Intercepts Pass

The only threat to the goal lines in the second half came on a narrowly missed field goal attempt by Lore from the Bearcat 42 yard line, and a Maryville drive after an intercepted pass that came close to producing the winning points. Bill Ward intercepted a pass and ran it back to the Springfield 30 yard line. After three line plays failed, Weed spun back into the line for an end around handoff, but the timing wasn't right and Maryville lost the ball on downs when Weed was stopped short of a first down.

Stanley Totoraitis, Harold Johnson, Floyd Klange, Don Hartness, Vernon Weidmaier, Ken Jones, Howard Glavin, Dewey Drennen, Larry Zierbel, Bob Osborn and Pete Younger saw most of the action in the Bearcat forward wall that held the powerful and swift Springfield backs in check.

Totoraitis and Johnson upheld their distinction of being the finest end and guard in the area as they repeatedly stopped the Bear runners, and Zierbel proved that he was a dependable substitute for the brilliant Totoraitis. Weed, Paul Butherus, Bill Gamble, Maury Giest, and freshman center Don Hoffman handled the line-backing chores. Except for one lapse when the Bears scored, the pass defense of the Bearcats was an improvement over previous performances. Slack and Bob Boeh saw defensive duty, along with Bruce Peters and Rex Adams.

Next Friday the Bearcats travel to Kansas City to meet the Rockhurst Hawks, and the following week will meet the Cape Girardeau Indians in their homecoming game.
